

JASON HEWLETT BIOGRAPHY

Jim Carrey, Michael Jackson, Elton John, Louie Armstrong, Nat King Cole, Led Zeppelin, Stevie Wonder, Ricky Martin, Cat Stevens, The Temptations, U2, Guns n' Roses, Coldplay, and Alvin & The Chipmunks are just a few of the performers to take the stage during the unforgettable one-man show of Jason Hewlett, The Entertainer. Audiences Coast-to-Coast have thrilled at the creativity, hilarious impersonations, touching portrayals, and nostalgia of this one of a kind impressionist/musician/humorist and corporate entertainer.

Jason was born in Salt Lake City, UT in 1978. His first show was in front of his 3rd Grade class where his teacher promised him some time to perform at the end of the day if he'd remain quiet until then. When his chance arrived, Jason went to the front of the classroom as his favorite TV character, Pee Wee Herman, and as his classmates roared with laughter, Jason was hooked with the performing bug. Talent Contests during his school years included performances as his favorite singers, Elvis Presley and Michael Jackson, and he even made enough money to go to the movies as a street-dancer on the weekends (the Dollar Movies!).

Jason graduated as an Honor Roll student and Student Body President from The Waterford School in Sandy, UT, in 1997. Jason received All-State Honors for his contributions on the school's basketball team and had plans to play in College until one of his heroes; Coach Tony Ingle of BYU noticed Jason's ability to captivate an audience with his humor and impressions. Coach Ingle suggested Jason work on his talents and was introduced to Chris Poulos, former manager of the successful folk singing group, The 3D's. Chris helped Jason hone his impressions into a show and Jason began working throughout Utah performing at parties and beauty pageants to rave reviews. It wasn't long before Jason's father, John, helped Jason contact the right people to get an audition for the Las Vegas "Legends In Concert", the 'Mecca' for great impersonators.

Jason began work for "Legends" as Ricky Martin in Myrtle Beach, SC, in 2001, one week after his marriage to his sweetheart, the former Tami Spent. Jason enjoyed his stint as the "Bon-bon Shaker" and, after having gained 30 lbs. from his wife's great cooking, decided it was time to become Elton John for "Legends" as well. In 2002 Jason opened the "Legends" show as Elton and came back later in the show as Ricky Martin, confusing blue-hairs throughout the theatre, while in Valley Forge, PA at the Lily Langtry Theatre.

Upon leaving Valley Forge, Jason also decided to close the chapter on his "Legends In Concert" experience and begin focus on his one-man show for Corporate America. Since August 2002 Jason has maintained an unprecedented climb up the "corporate ladder" as an independent, one-man show Entertainer. Jason also added to his credentials "Motivational Speaker" after joining NSA (National Speaker's Association), and sharing his experiences of dreams and goals while mixing in his favorite segments of his one-man show as a Keynote Speaker at numerous conventions. Jason's book "Signature Moves" was released in 2006.

In 2007 Jason released his first album of Original Music titled, “Good To Me”, written and sung by Jason and performed in his own voice. The album has been a best-seller at Jason’s shows and expanded his repertoire from a show of solely impressions to Jason’s creative expression as a very capable and gifted musician.

Jason’s goal as an Entertainer continues to be the same as when he began: Pursue the Entertainment Business, make others smile, and fill the world with humor and entertainment the whole family can enjoy together. Jason’s show is perfect for the Annual Corporate Convention, a private gathering, and many other types of business functions, as each show is customized to the company’s desires. Jason would be thrilled to hear from you about performing for your next event.

JASON HEWLETT ENTERTAINMENT

PO Box 95774 South Jordan, UT 84095-774 * (801) 541-4214 / Fax: 801-302-9195

www.jasonhewlett.com * jason@jasonhewlett.com